Course HUM 170	Course title Montreal World Film Festival
Course description State the purpose and content of the course. Please limit to 500 characters.	This brief course will be held at the Montreal World Film Festival in late August. Students travel to Montreal to attend screenings of films at the Festival. This course will appeal to those with an interest in film or in cross-cultural travel as it offers both intensive film-viewing and an introduction to the largest French-speaking community in North America. The course fee will cover round trip train travel from Windsor, hotel accommodations in Montreal, passes to ten Festival films and the Festival program guide. Orientation sessions will be held both on campus and in Montreal.
Course outcomes List skills and knowledge students will have after taking the course. Assessment method Indicate how student achievement in each outcome will be assessed to determine student achievement for purposes of course improvement.	Outcomes (applicable in all sections)	Assessment Methods for determining course effectiveness
	The students will be able to correctly employ film vocabulary to analyze, discuss, and review newly-made films.	Written film reviews
Course Objectives Indicate the objectives that support the course outcomes given above. Course Evaluations Indicate how instructors will determine the degree to which each objective is met for each student.	Objectives (applicable in all sections)	Evaluation Methods for determining level of student performance of objectives
	1. The students will define critical film terms such as plot, character, setting, and theme and utilize these terms in their reviews.	Written film reviews.
	2. The students will utilize technical terms such as varieties of shot (close-up, mid-shot, panoramic), of camera movement (pan, tilt, track), transitions between shots (dissolve, flat cut, wipe, fade) in their reviews.	Written film reviews.
	3. The students will define historical film terms such as expressionism, neo-realism, film noir, New Wave in their reviews.	Written film reviews.

Scoring and analysis of assessment:

1. Indicate how the above assessment(s) will be scored and evaluated (e.g. departmentally developed rubric, external evaluation, other). Attach the rubric/scoring guide. Rubric will be:

The papers will be scored using a departmentally developed rubric.

2. Indicate the standard of success to be used for this assessment.

Students who submit five reviews or more will score an average of 2.5 or better.

3. Indicate who will score and analyze the data (data must be blind-scored).

Blind-scored by a qualified member of the department.

4. Explain the process for using assessment data to improve the course.

Assessment data will be reviewed with the department. If students are not successful we will expand the time at the orientations to include more teaching of film terms and improve handouts that explain these terms.
