

Dash and Hyphen Quiz

I. Replace commas or colons with dashes where possible in the following.

1. His pet topics, capital punishment, taxes, gun control, and the legalization of marijuana, bore her to death.
2. The international students in the class were stunned by America's divorce rate: a reported 51%.

II. Add hyphens where needed in the following sentences.

3. The danger of snow covered roofs was a hot topic in the media a few years ago.
4. Approximately one third of the students failed the physics class.
5. Having a law abiding accountant is a great comfort to some self employed people.
6. She wrote a moving memoir about her ten year old daughter's battle with leukemia.

1. His pet topics—capital punishment, taxes, gun control, and the legalization of marijuana—bore her to death.
2. The international students in the class were stunned by America's divorce rate—a reported 51%.
3. The danger of snow-covered roofs was a hot topic in the media a few years ago.
4. Approximately one-third of the students failed the physics class.
5. Having a law-abiding accountant is a great comfort to some self-employed people.
6. She wrote a moving memoir about her ten-year-old daughter's battle with leukemia.